

Sunday, April 3, 2016, 8:00 am Wilderness Gardens Hike

Come join us for a moderate four mile hike at Wilderness Gardens Preserve. Wilderness Gardens is a County of San Diego Park in the San Luis Rey River watershed. The park includes an historic grist mill, small museum, and pond. The hike will include the Upper Meadow Trail which has a steep approach and descent and provides wonderful views of the preserve and the San Luis Rey River corridor. Bring water and sun protection and wear sturdy shoes.

NOTE: Self-pay parking fee of $3.00; cash only. To avoid the fee, you can arrange car pools on the Valley Center Trails Facebook Page.

Directions to meeting place:

From Valley Center, drive north on Cole Grade Rd to Hwy.76. At junction of 76 and Cole Grade Rd, turn left (west) onto 76. Travel about 3.1 miles. Turn left onto Bodie Blvd. There is a sign for the Wilderness Gardens. 14209 Hwy 76, Pala, Ca.

Steady rain 24 hours before event cancels hike. Heavy rain one hour before start time on day of hike cancels hike. Cancellation will be confirmed on Valley Center Trails Facebook page.
